

Kitchen Assistant (m/ f/ d) (20 hours/ week) starting immediately at Jugendbildungsstätte Kaubstraße

The association Alte Feuerwache e.V. is an independent youth welfare organization that implements various programs at multiple locations throughout Berlin. Its work encompasses youth education, culture and social work, support for upbringing, political education, and career orientation in schools. Our goal is to support young people in becoming engaged and critical members of society.

The Jugendbildungsstätte Kaubstraße at Alte Feuerwache e.V. is a political education center with accommodation for 50 people in Berlin Wilmersdorf. We offer seminars for pupils, educational seminars within the framework of voluntary services, training for multipliers, as well as art and media projects – along with professional exchanges on current socio-political issues. Our educational offerings aim to foster critical engagement with societal power structures, promote the participation of young people in decision-making processes, and strengthen democratic structures. Key focuses of our political education include diversity, power critique, mediation, global learning, and solidarity learning.

We expect from you:

- You have professional experience as a kitchen assistant and are familiar with the organization of kitchen operations
- Ecological work is a matter of course for you
- You are friendly and communicative when dealing with our young people and seminar supervisors
- You work independently, with commitment, and enjoy being part of a team
- You are very reliable
- You are physically resilient and can keep a clear overview even in stressful situations
- Knowledge of English or Italian, in addition to German, would be desirable

What we offer:

- A varied role
- Flexible working hours in consultation with the team
- An open, communicative working atmosphere and a good working climate
- A motivated, interdisciplinary, and diverse team
- Openness to new ideas and appreciative, empathetic colleagues
- Various social benefits
- A subsidy for the BVG company ticket
- A freshly prepared lunch daily
- Payment based on TVL-2
